

Activity Sheet Labels

Cut out the labels and see if you can match them correctly to the orca!

Orca Anatomy: What goes where?

Dorsal Fin

Flukes

Saddle
Patch

Ear

Teeth

Rostrum

Eye Patch

Eye

Pectoral
Fins

Peduncle
(Tail Stock)

Blowhole

Adaptation to the Marine Environment:

Match the body part to the function and label the orca

Teeth

Thick layer for warmth

On the top of the head for easy breathing

For Steering

Strong and sharp
to catch prey

Body

Streamlined to move through the water quickly and easily

Dorsal Fin

Evolved from hind legs for propulsion
through water

Pectoral
Fins

Tail for stabilisation

Melon (forehead)

Blowhole

Used to produce echolocation
clicks

Flukes

Blubber

